of the Vikings
'84-'85

Mr. "Rod" Retires

The 1985 SAGA is dedicated to Mr. Pete Rodriquez, Bryan High School Band Director and Music Supervisor for the Bryan Public Schools. Mr. "Rod" retires at the end of this school year after a distinguished musical career.

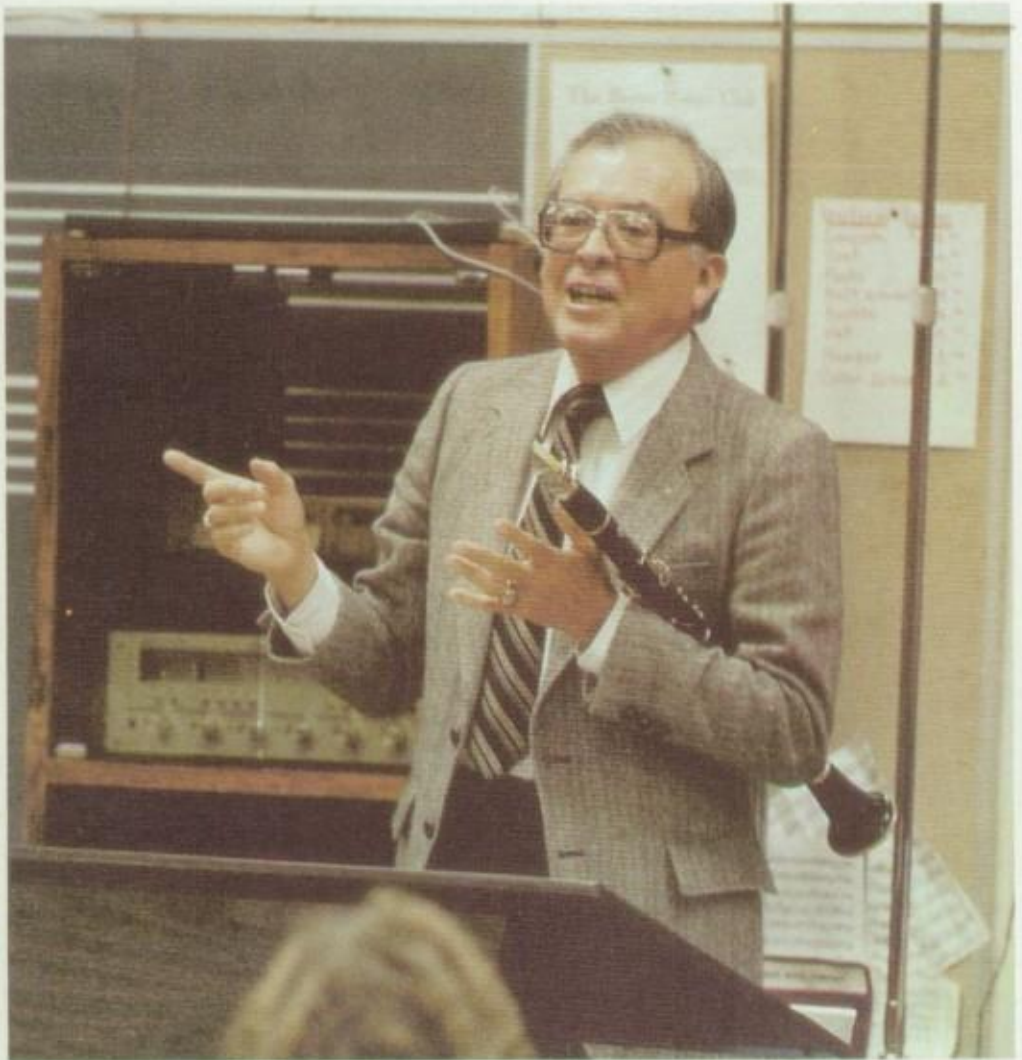

From playing clarinet for and directing the United States Air Force Band to producing numerous award winning Bryan High School Bands, Mr. Rod has given one great performance after another. Over the years he has played professionally with such bands as Charlie Barnett, Ted Weems, Buddy Morrow, and Joe Reichman. He has taught band at Nacogdoches, Timpson, Longview, Hawkins, Lancaster, and Bryan; has been a clinician at many summer camps; and has judged U.I.L. and T.M.E.A. events.

Playing, teaching, conducting, arranging and writing music has been Mr. Rod's life. From the energy apparent in these pictures, Mr. Rod is obviously not retiring from music and has many more great performances to make. We will miss you, Mr. Rod.

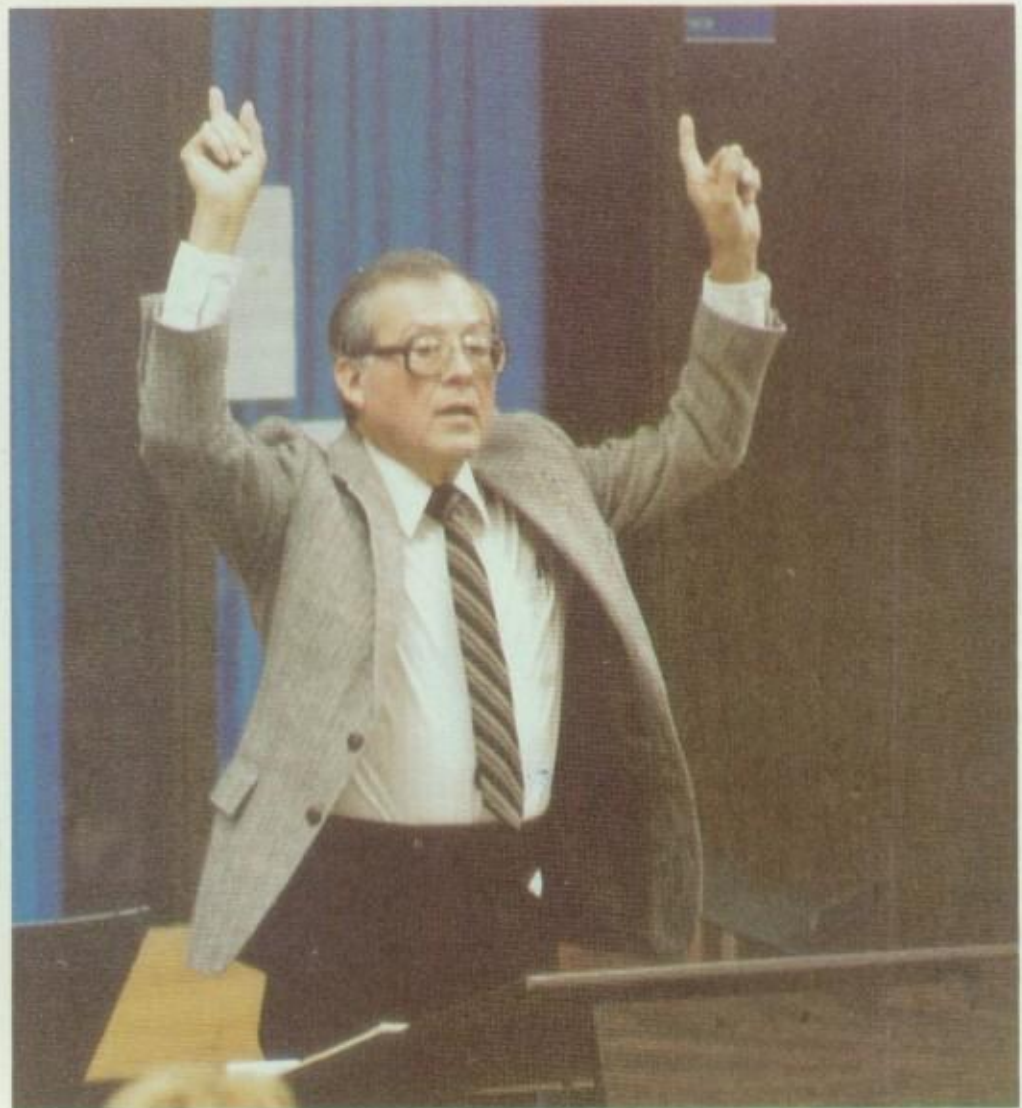

A Great Performance

SENIORS

The Class of '85

... a final turn in the road.

Classes at Bryan High began August 29, 1984. The objective was simple: to graduate after 3090 hours of classroom instruction. Some would require less time, some more, and some wouldn't make it at all.

Class Rings . . .

"Every year when school starts, all the juniors are invited to an assembly. Just what is this assembly about? — It's Balfour and it's time to order class rings. The juniors react with excitement as they realize just how close they are to becoming seniors. Some people wonder why we order rings our junior year. The reason for this is simple . . . we can wear them longer. Class rings are symbolic of Bryan High and of the individual activities we are involved in. Rings are a symbol of a never ending loyalty to BHS. We can all be proud of our school and can wear our class rings and be proud we are Vikings!"

Sophomores Greeted By New Principal

Students at Bryan High School were greeted by a new principal, Mr. Jerry Kirby. Before coming to Bryan, Mr. Kirby was principal at Magnolia High School and assistant principal at L.D. Bell High School. Mr. Kirby taught Biology, Health and Physical Science and coached various sports.

During his spare time Mr. Kirby likes to hunt, fish, snow ski and read a good book. Mr. Kirby feels that a school supplies a broad scope of activities that lead to numerous fields of interest for students. He feels school should provide a good social education, as well as a good academic education.

First Day

Although many of us couldn't wait to get to Bryan High, some of us were having second thoughts. Ernest Oliver and Raymond Nelms are working hard to beat the heat of House Bill 72. The work is hard but rewarding. Amy Koronka and Chris Hayes think the work becomes fun when you enter Mrs. Brown's class.

Snow Day

On January 2, 1985 school was abandoned due to freezing rain. Later that night Jack Frost decided to pay us a winter visit. Although school was only delayed a day, it did allow us to enjoy the scenery for a short while. As students gathered at Bryan High School to attend classes and meet with friends things slowly returned to normal as they watched the snow melt from their classroom windows.

STUDENT IFE

Students Rides

If you looked in the parking lot at Bryan High School, what would you see? You would probably see cars of all makes and models.

A majority of B.H.S. students are driving to school. The cars they are driving range from a two door Ford to a four door Mercedes.

Although some students have problems finding parking spaces, some have no problem at all. Jerry Scarmad above to your left, found a parking space just fine for her Cutlass. Next to Jerry's car is Leigh Kubin's Thunderbird.

Students try to find parking spaces convenient enough to be out of the parking lot before 3:35. Steve Goff is prime example of this, he is parked by the curb to one of the exits.

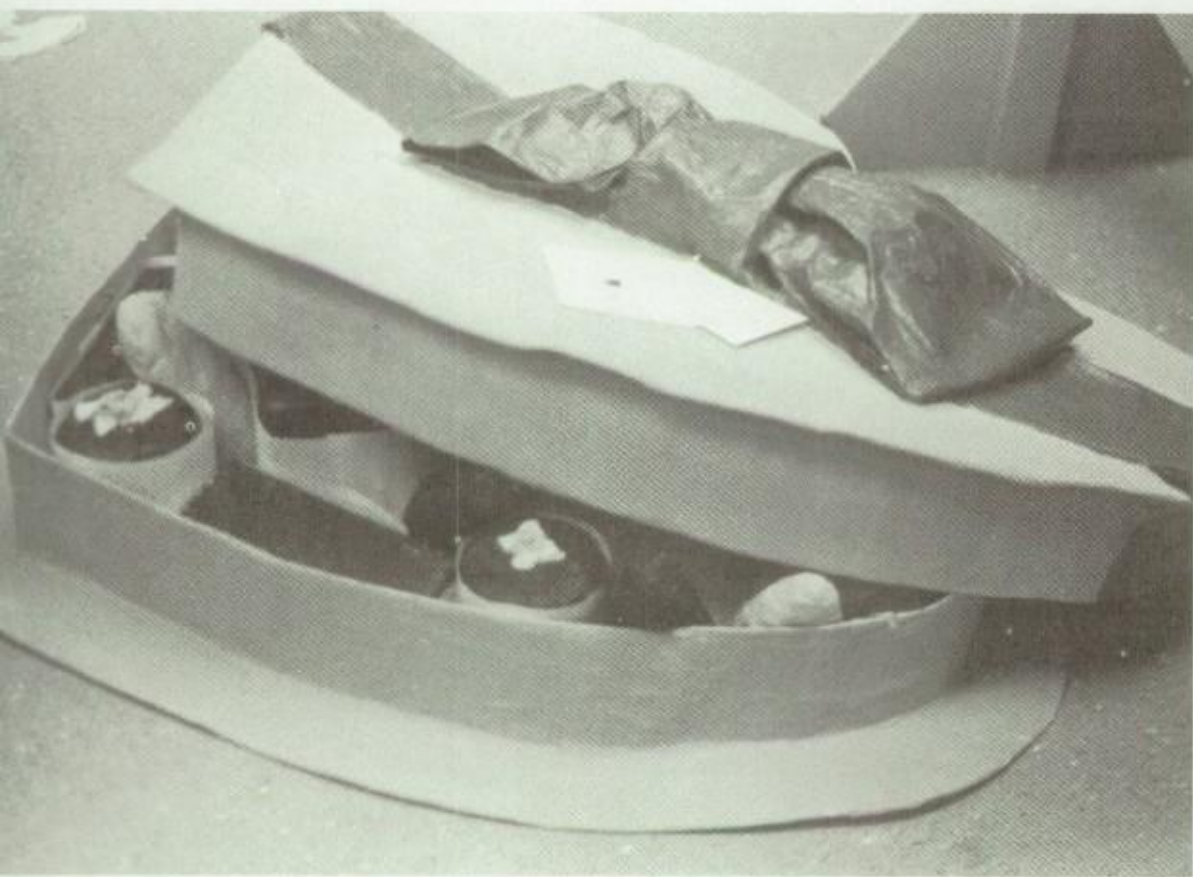

in 1984-'85

It is also traditional to keep your car clean. Above, you can see the sparkles popping from Chas Watson's Corvette. Trucks are a little harder to keep clean, especially those that are driven through mud, evidently Eric Angonia has no problem at all. Below, the sun beams down on Neal Cuddy's Mazda, John Ramirez's Lincoln and Devan Hanna's Camaro.

Viking Maidens Show Their Valentine Spirit

Bottom right: Mrs. Dorsey's class gives BHS the biggest Valentine of all.

Give out a card,
or a flower from your yard.
Love is in the air,
it's time to say "I care."
You ask me "why?"
I say "give it a try."
It's the only way to say
"Happy Valentine's Day."

"We all Pulled Together . . ."

Playing football and being a part of a football program can be an exciting learning experience for any young athlete who can commit himself to the sport. But being part of a championship team can be even more of an experience. It gives an athlete such good feelings of accomplishment and self-worth.

Being a VIKING has really meant so much to me, because as a young boy I had many dreams, one of those was to become a Viking. The memory of picking up a newspaper (four years ago) and reading that two Viking players had received All-State honors had a great influence on me; then the time came for me to set my goals. While setting my goals, I had dreams of becoming an All-State nose-guard. I also had hopes of carrying on two other dreams. These two dreams were, number one, to BEAT TEMPLE, and number two, to go on to win the state championship.

Well, we beat Temple this year 10-0, I received first team All-State honors as an offensive guard, and as for the state championship, I believe that the Vikings played the best football in Texas this year even if the record books show different.

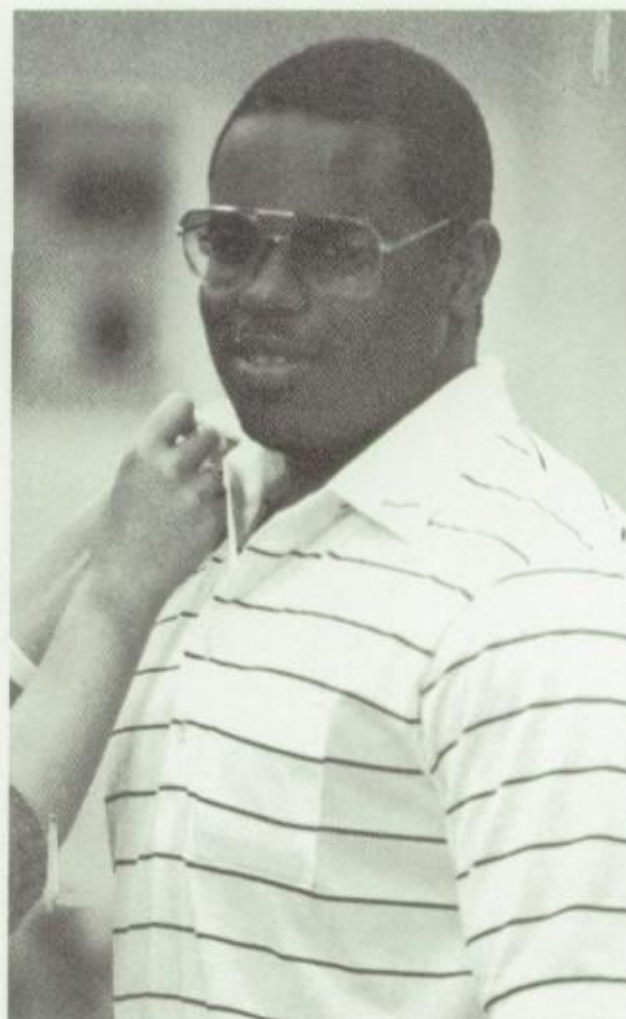

One of the main reasons for the Vikings' successful season was the togetherness of the players. The offensive line worked great together all year because we helped each other with mistakes, and when someone missed a block there was usually another lineman there to cover for him. At practice we would always go over calls to help each other, just in case a defensive player would happen to run a stunt. This closeness had been with the team since last winter when we pushed each other, while lifting weights, during off-season. In two-a-day practices we all pulled together to fight the heat and to fight our way through the rough schedule to a championship.

The Viking fans also played a big part in making this season successful. These faithful fans were always there with support when it was needed most. Like most teams, the Vikings would have loved to have played all the games at Viking stadium, but this was not possible.

After the first couple of road trips I didn't mind because the fans had a way of making the players feel as though the whole town was there with us. In fact, during the Longview game (200 miles away from home) when we were down, we looked to the fans for support, and there they were. We came out on TOP!. Our fans were there when the final seconds ticked off the clock against Highland Park in Texas Stadium, and they joined us as we shed our tears of agony.

Being a Bryan High student trainer was one of the best things that I ever did. Being a trainer was fun because I got to be part of the team in my own special way. A trainer's job is to make sure before every practice that everybody is taped up and ready to go. A trainer has to be at every practice just to make sure nobody gets seriously injured, and if so, do something about it. On game days, a trainer must be at the game early just to get all the equipment out and ready for the game. The job is hard, but the managers job is too. They have to be there for the coaches before and after practice. A manager is the one who gets the players their equipment so they will be prepared for a hard day's work. Managers always stay late to make sure the uniforms are cleaned. Trainers and managers are a real contribution to the team.

Coach Patterson

Bryan assistant coach Mike Patterson, better known as 'Big Boy,' is a sight to behold. The former 250 pound lineman is responsible for wearing out the Astroturf in front of the Viking bench. Patterson is the most animated of the rather calm and collected Viking brain trust.

He stalks the sidelines like a hungry bird in search of prey, much like his defense. It's hard to imagine Patterson having been any more mobile while at Texas Tech earning second team all Southwest Conference honors.

Then there's the skull sessions. If a defensive player makes a mistake, Patterson's tongue lashing will be to the point.

"Son, we've got to do better than that," Patterson will beckon, working on a good size wad of tobacco. "There's no excuse for that."

Patterson, who serves as the defensive coordinator, is hard on radio head sets. He must wear out a set a game or one for each shutout his defense records, which seems like one in the same.

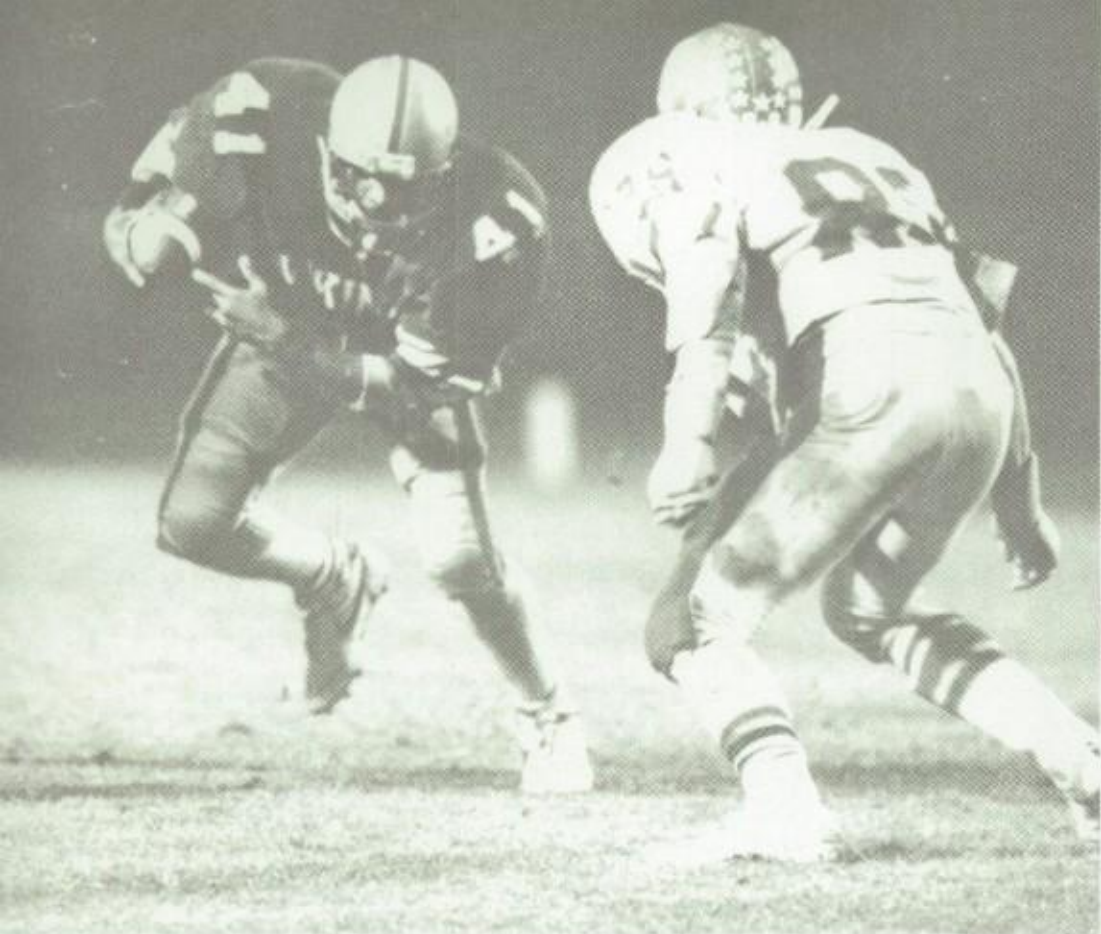

Then, when a Viking recovers a fumble or comes up with an interception, Patterson will be the first coach to bear hug the hero. After surviving a Patterson bear hug, the opposition must seem easy.

But don't overlook one thing, Patterson's methods have produced winners which in turn have kept Bryan winning.

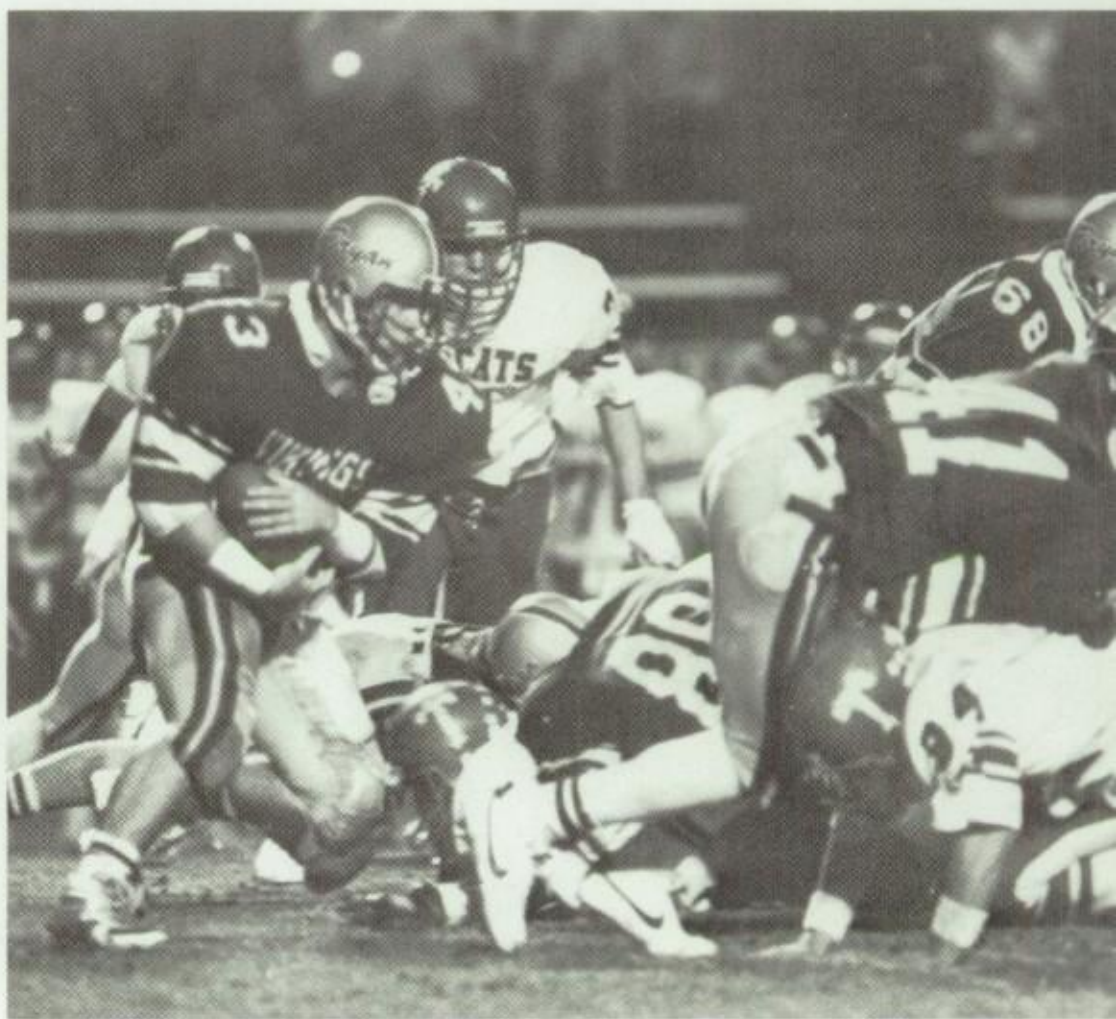

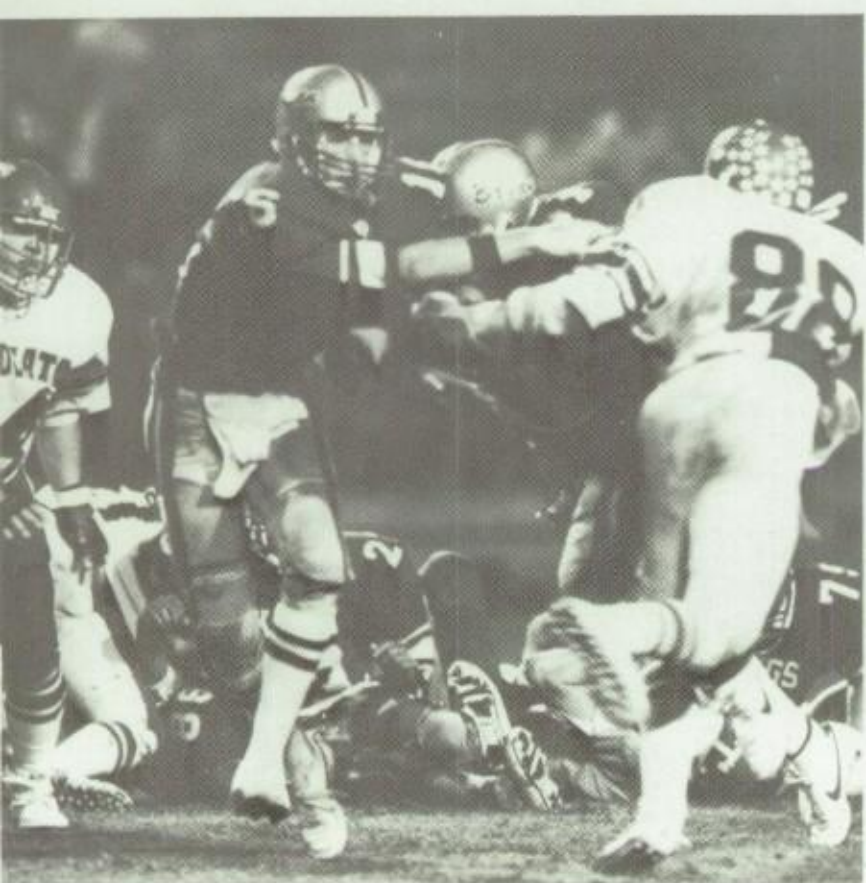

Patterson coached the lineman and linebackers upon arriving in 1974 until being promoted to defensive coordinator three years ago. And you'd think with his success a head coaching position or an assistant's job in the collegiate ranks would be in order. Patterson says not.

"Bryan is my home," Patterson said. "My family is here. It would be tough to leave."

Vikings crashed through Temple's line to wrap up a Victory of 10-0.

at PLE

What can be said about this game,
That hasn't been said before?
The Vikings and the Wildcats —
District 14 — 5a's perennial powerhouses!
The two biggest rivals in the district.
Bryan and Temple always played each other
In the last game of the season and it always determined the district championship
This game, in everyone's mind was no different even though it was played in the middle of the District schedule.
Everyone knew the Vikings and Wildcats were
The top two teams in the district with Bryan looking to have the better team
On paper.
The one thing wrong with being the better
Team on paper is that it doesn't prove a thing.
But with their 10-0 victory the Vikings proved
The paper theme correct.
The 10-0 score may not sound impressive
but anyone who saw the game can attest to the Viking's
Complete domination of the contest.
The Vikings dominated every phase of the game.
The Viking's offense may not have put a bunch of points on the board but that doesn't matter
Because they marched up and down the field time and again to keep the ball away from
The Wildcats much of the contest.
Bryan could have won this game by one point
Which is a tribute to that Viking defense which kept the Wildcats out of the end zone.
The Vikings controlled the tempo of the game
offensively and defensively.
The one thing that can be said about this victory for the Vikings was that it was completely a team effort.
We were coming off a rather lackadaisical performance against Round Rock but that next week in Practice everyone worked harder than ever because nothing would stop us from beating the Wildcats
The whole week was perfect —
School, the pep rally, practice
And the support was GREAT!
The feeling of tenseness before the game is Hard to explain but the Thrill of Victory

After the game is even harder to explain,
It is the most awesome feeling there is.
The Bryan Vikings were, are, and always will be a Class Act!!

Kids Kidnapped

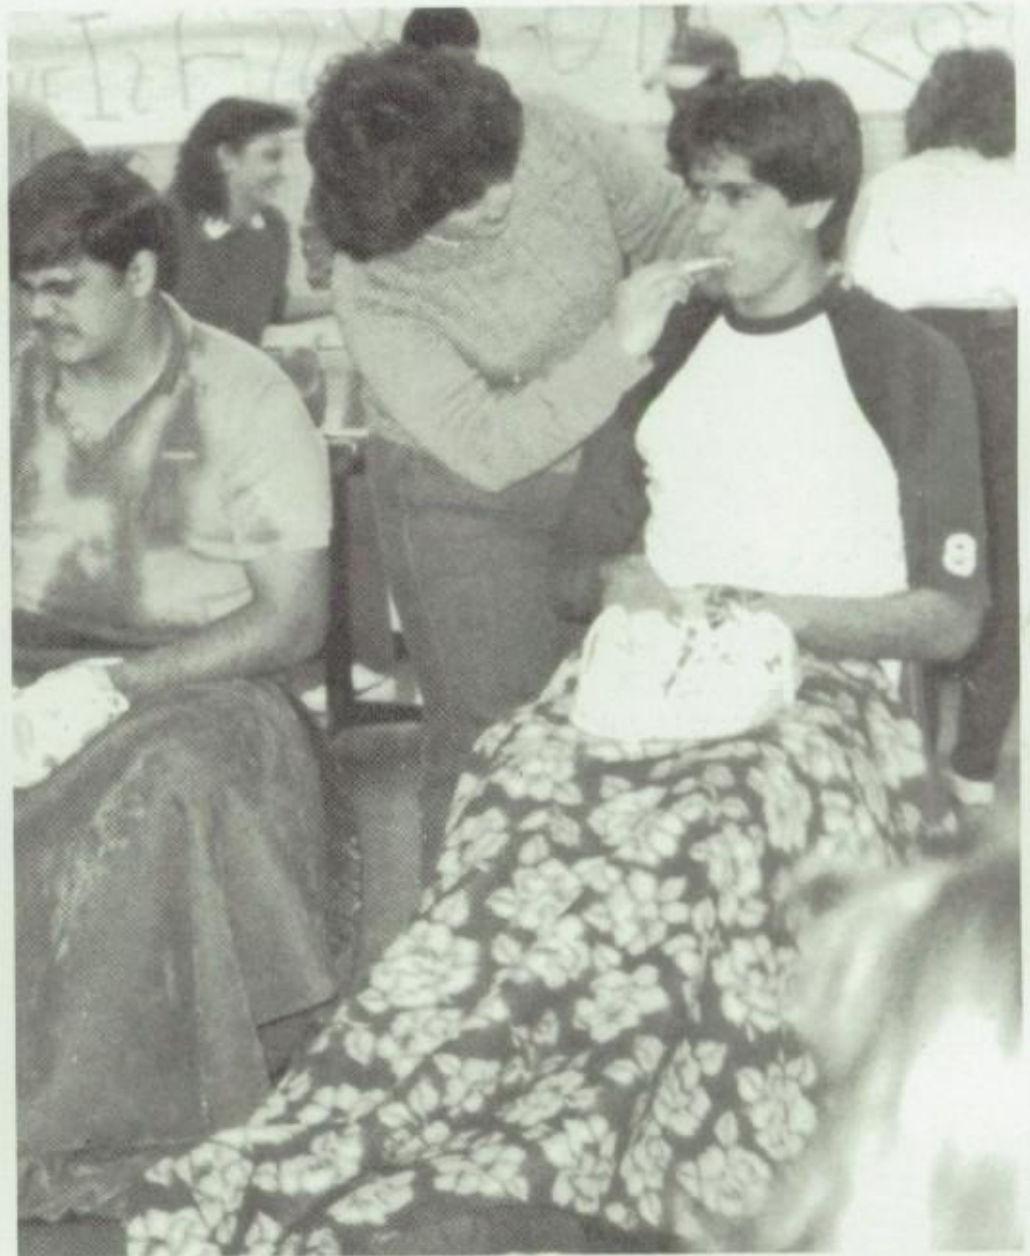

For Breakfast

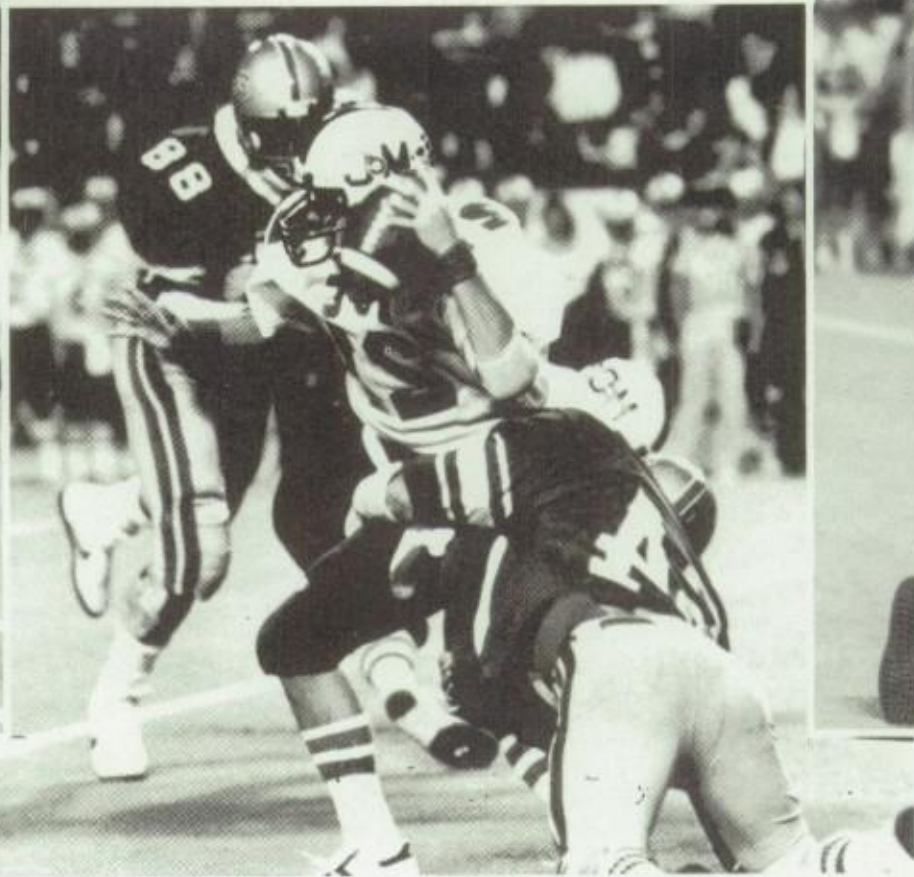

On November 23, 1984, the Varsity football players were in for a surprise. The B.H.S. Student Council had a brilliant idea, kidnap the players, give 'em breakfast, then go through their daily routines. And that's exactly what they did! At 7:30 a.m. the Student Council met and designated a car for each area to kidnap the players. After collecting a carload, they took the guys to the school cafeteria, where the Viking Club Mothers served breakfast, with a little help from McDonald's!

Brent Stringfellow, Lee Denena, Cody Payne, Jerry Newcomb, Gabriel Garcia and Chris Ribardo all shared their daily routines with us by using someone else's hands to do things like brushing their teeth and shaving! First the Student Council had the guys take off their shoes and put them on their hands, then they proceeded with the routines. After interesting routines with these fellows, they adjourned to the commons where their cheerleaders, Laurie Decker, Judy Jones, Carol Janda and Regina Jenkins led in various spirit raising chants. That night, the boys led McCulloch in a 21-7 victory.

The play started with Eddie "Crazy Legs" Jordan #16, handling the ball off to Charles Perry #41, Charles would then follow me (Pete Ellis) either left or right. I would try to clear the way for Charles — it usually worked. This touchdown tied the game at 7 and in the Conrow High game was the only time we were behind by a touchdown in the regular season. The Perfect

Season

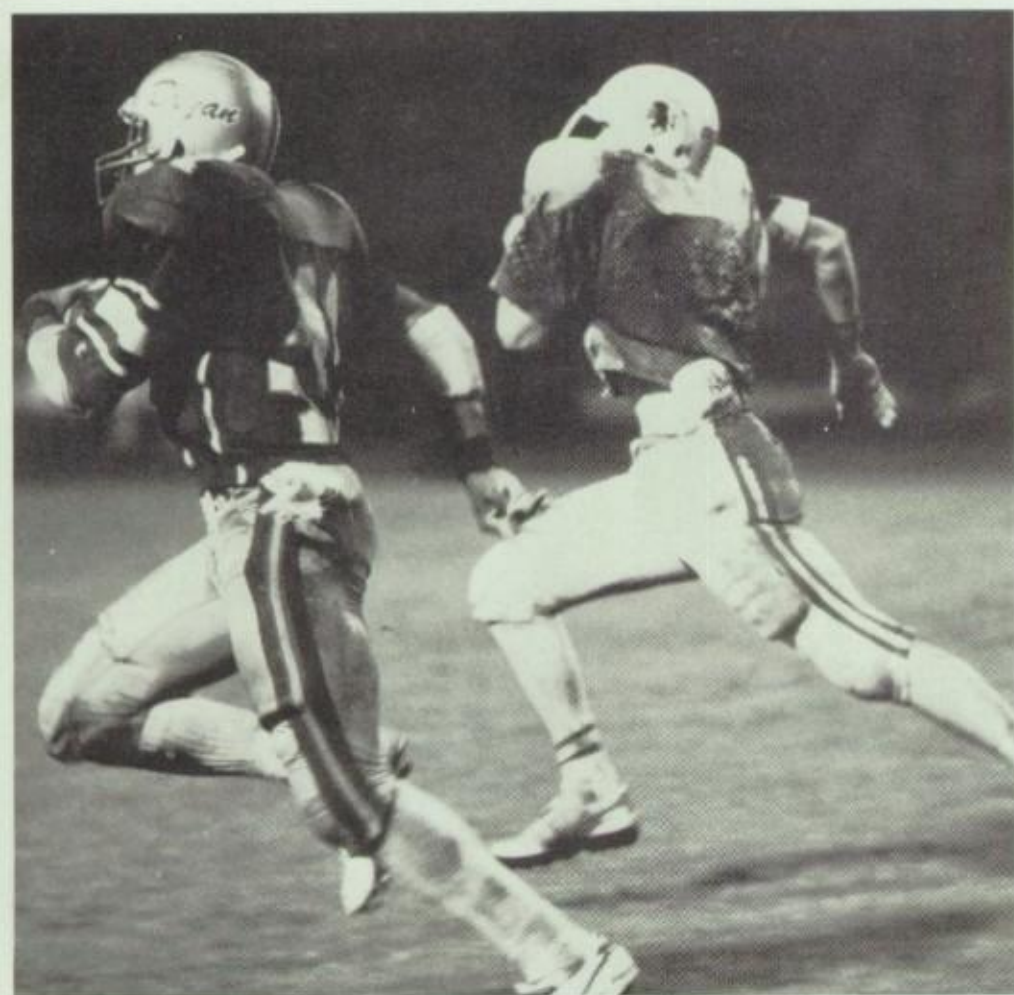

Bryan High School has always had a very impressive football team. No one will stand prouder than the Class of '85. We're the first and only team to achieve a perfect regular season record of 10-0. Being a part of that team is a memory I will hold dear in my heart for as long as I live.

Growing up watching the Vikings play was for me a big thrill. Sitting in the Stadium watching my uncle play, I longed for the day when it would be my turn to play on Viking Field.

Through Boy's Club, grade school, and Jr. High, the majority of the guys on our squad have been playing football, against each other or the same team. In Jr. High our teams went undefeated through district with the only loss occurring when our teams collided. We knew then, that the class of '85 COULDN'T BE STOPPED!!

For the next three years we would sweat blood and pain, with one thing on our minds — WIN! Never before had I been on team that was supported, almost entirely on togetherness. Without the hard work and determination of each player to become a better person as a whole, our perfect season would have been nothing but a lost dream.

Kirk Harris

Senior

I will always remember my senior year because of the football season we had. I was privileged to play for what I consider the best team in the state.

#43 Pete Ellis

Playing football for 3 years at Bryan High has given me the opportunity to learn. Usually, you get out what you put into something. That's why I feel our team was most successful in B.H.S. history. As a team, we were down at times, but in the end, we would always come together. Football teaches one to work with other people, and have self-discipline. It also has many disappointments that one must overcome.

#79 Charles Benbow

I really can't tell you what football means to me — it means a whole lot!! Well, it's something I've wanted to do since I was a litta'ole kid. I really can't explain how it feels when I'm running the ball — feel like a Pro!

#23 Melvin Smith
(Upchurch)

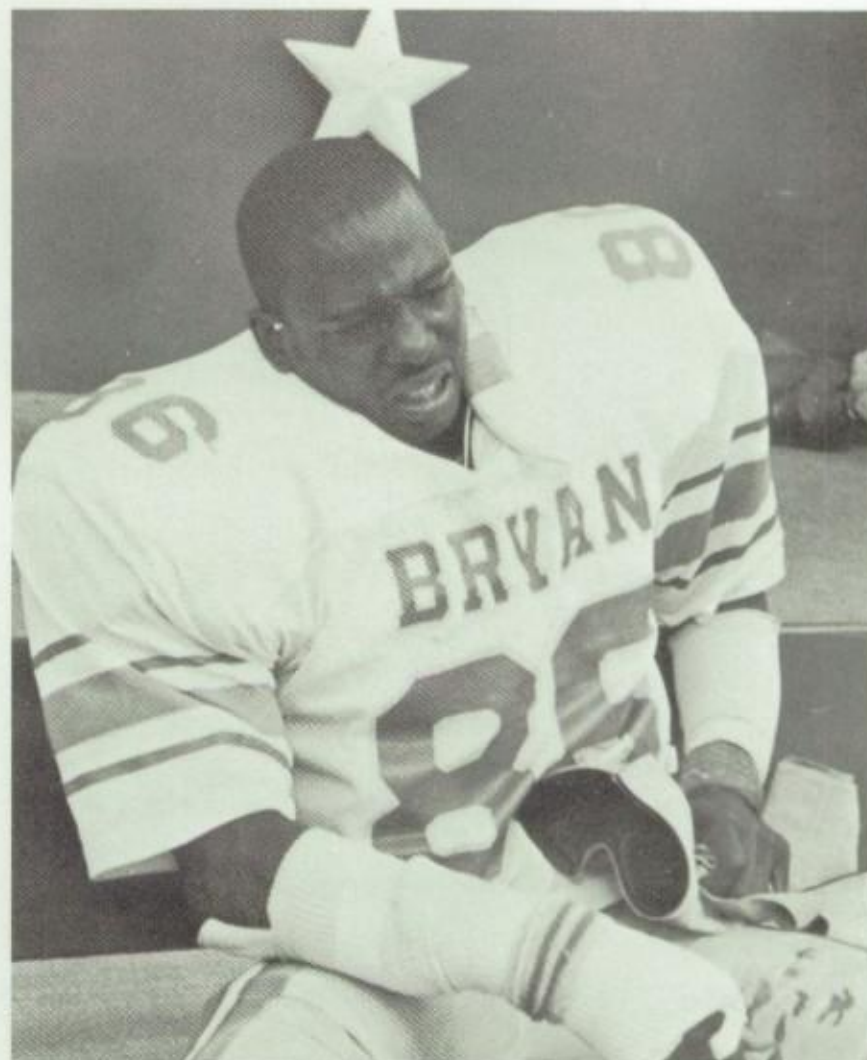

Thoughts

This year we all played together like one big family, with the encouragement of the coaches and fans. It really meant a lot to me to get this far, but I wish we could have gotten further because NOTHING is like winning State.

#86 Booker Conley

Don't get the wrong idea, I wasn't crying, we were just behind by one point and I had a cramp !! — B.C.

I really enjoyed playing this year, going to the playoffs is something I'll remember for the rest of my life. Though we went 12-0, that loss was really a win because we went out and gave it all we had. With hard work and dedication we became winners on and off the field.

#44 Derrick Wiggins
(The Enforcer)

The two most important things to me in each game were — first, that we win and second, that I was a part of that win.

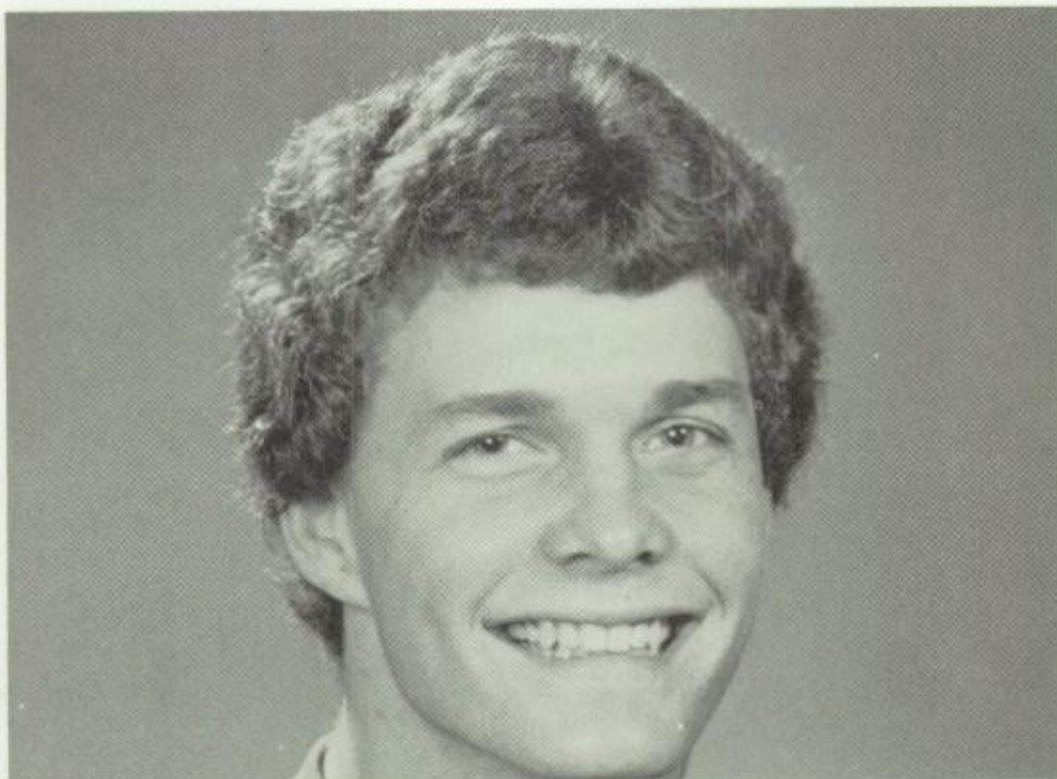

#69 Jim Lunsford

I think the reason our team was a success was because of the friendship and brotherhood between the players.

#64 Randy Lunsford

The 1984 Playoffs!

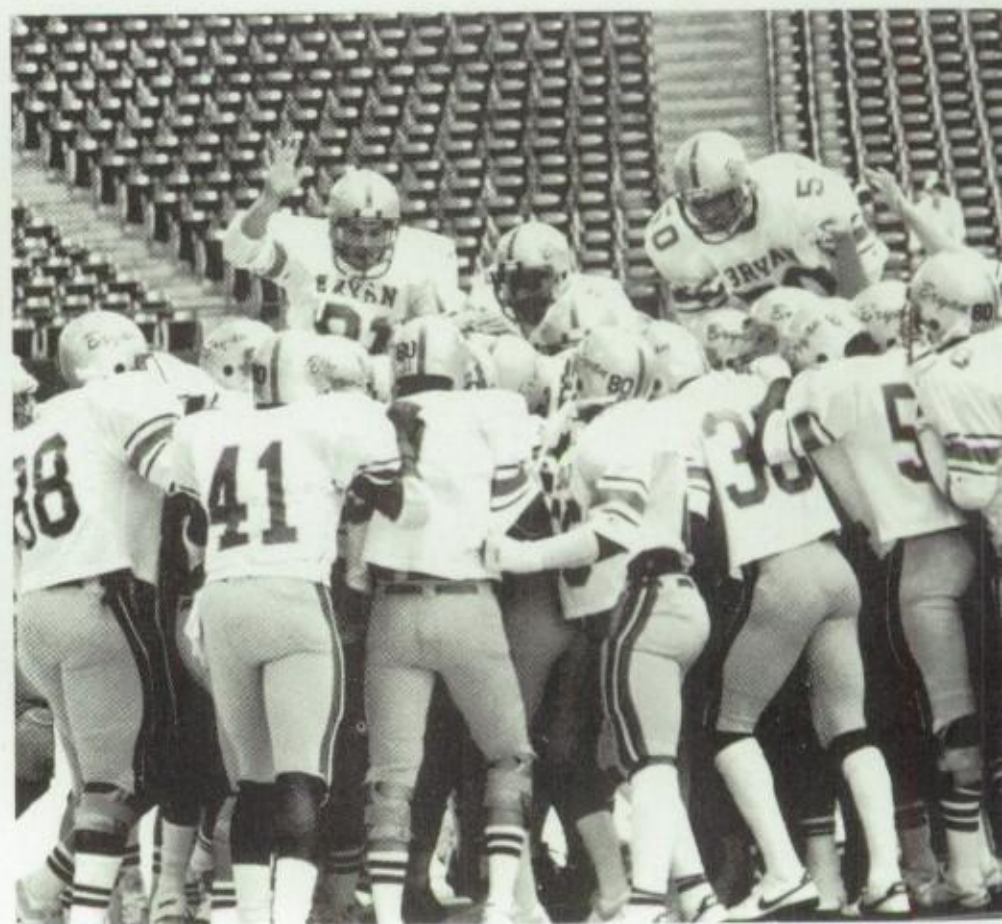

The 1984 football season was a very fun and important part of life. The playoffs were especially exciting. The Longview game was one of the biggest challenges for our team during this year. Longview was the pre-season number one team in the state and probably the most talented. We lost the coin toss and had to travel to Longview to play at their home stadium. We came out with a hard fought victory before a capacity crowd, by the score of 24-14. This victory was probably one of the high points of our season.

In the area championship game we faced Conroe-McCullough. During the week our team had to overcome the death of Willie Garcia, a friend and former teammate. Before the game the whole team put the number (80) on the back of their helmets to show our respect towards him. We played rather sluggish through the first half, but came out in the second for a 21-7 victory at Kyle Field.

Our final game was at Texas Stadium against Highland Park. Our team stayed in the Marriott in Dallas. The game was tight throughout. We kept expecting to come up with a big play to seal a victory, however, it just wasn't our day. We lost 14-13. It was a great disappointment to our team and a loss that none of us will ever be able to completely get over. Even though we lost, I still believe that we had the best team in the state. We had a certain togetherness that made the season special to me both on and off the field. This was a time in my life that I will always treasure and never forget.

#14 Bees Sheffield

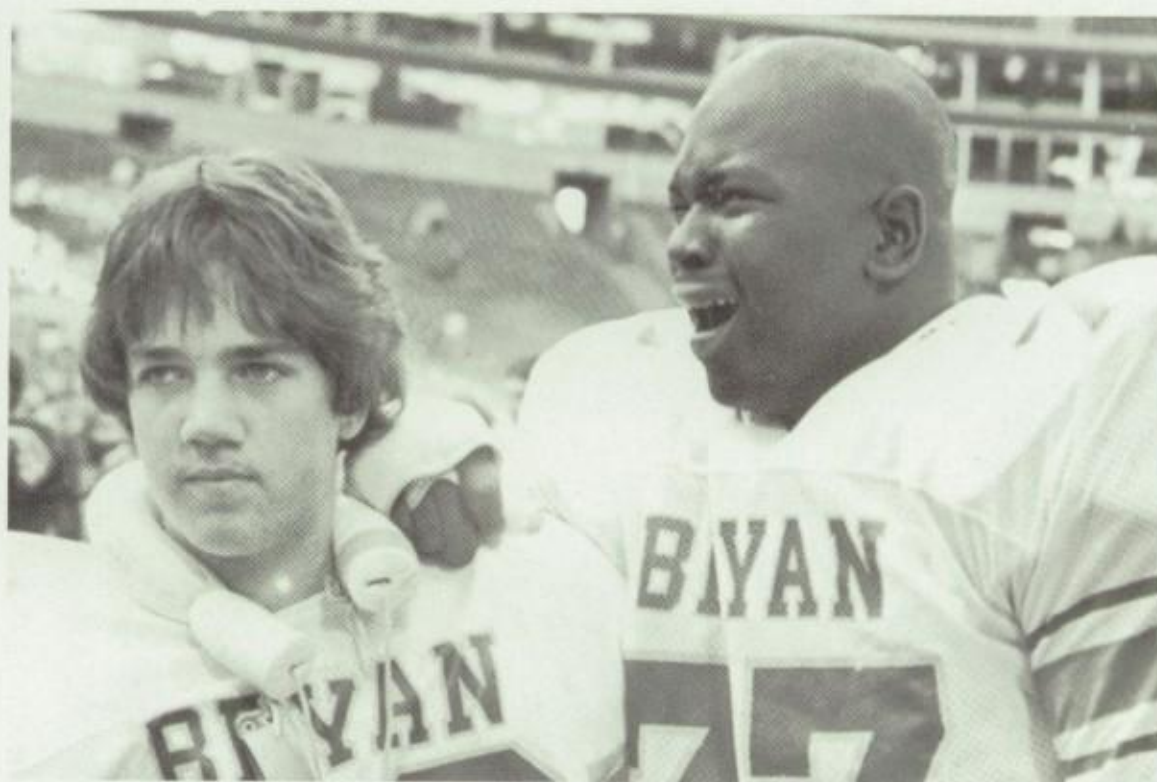

We were behind, so every moment was crucial.

Progress was made

But not quite enough

Soon we realized . . . our "magic" season was over

Being a

By Dennis Rhodes

To be a Viking basketball player, the first step to make in the right direction is towards dedication. Being a Viking makes me feel as being part of a program which is known throughout Texas. The off-season program is where you make it or break it. The long hours of hard work each and every day were really worth all we accomplished this season. The basketball program helps a person develop talents and skills which are useful on the court. Defensive and offensive tactics are some of the many things taught, as well as discipline. Most of all: togetherness, learning how to play as a team, and get along well on and off the court are important. Vikings combine together to "gel" as one.

What makes the coach proud is a person being able to give all he's got every time he steps on the court in practice or games. Coach always appreciated the good things a person did, and for the bad things he tried to help you to improve yourself as a person as well as a player. Respect is also what a coach wants out of his players. When a team wins, everyone is happy. When a team loses, everyone is disappointed. A true Viking will always be proud and always keep his head held high. A person can look back on a Viking season, good or bad, and show no signs of embarrassment. There is nothing I regret about being a Viking basketball player because being on two state championship teams, having great teammates, and being part of a successful Viking program have made the years very special to me.

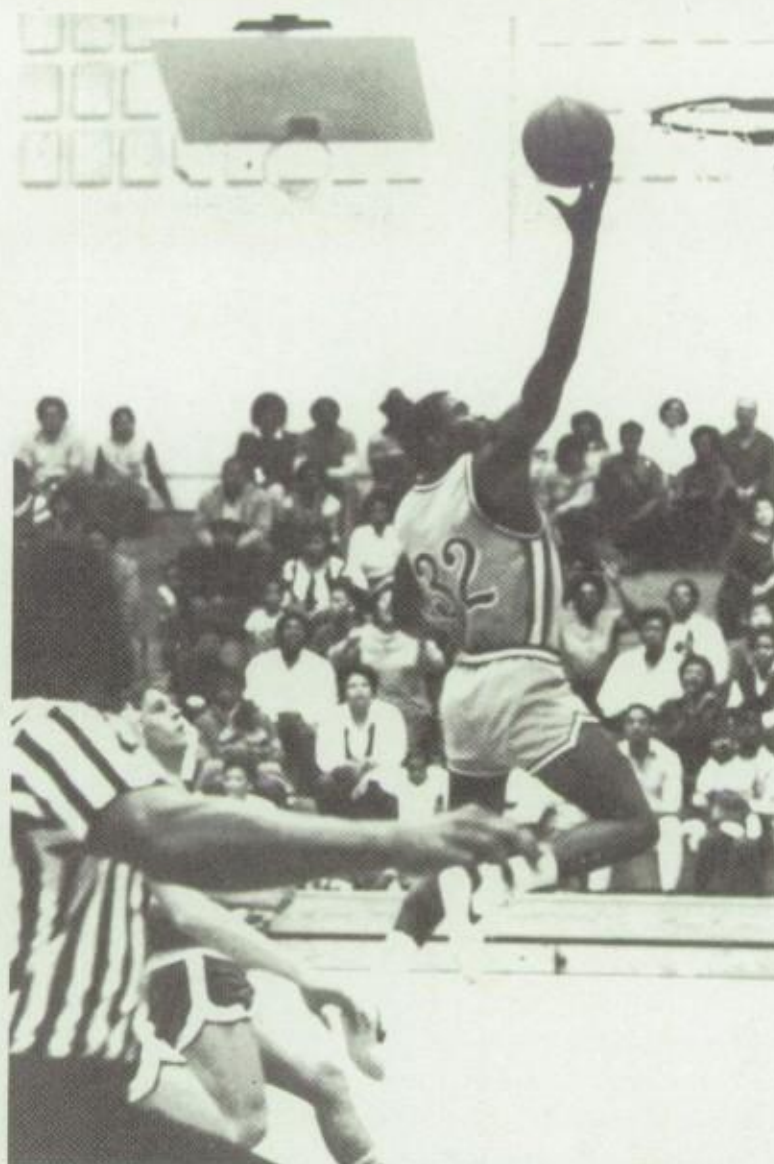

Viking . . .

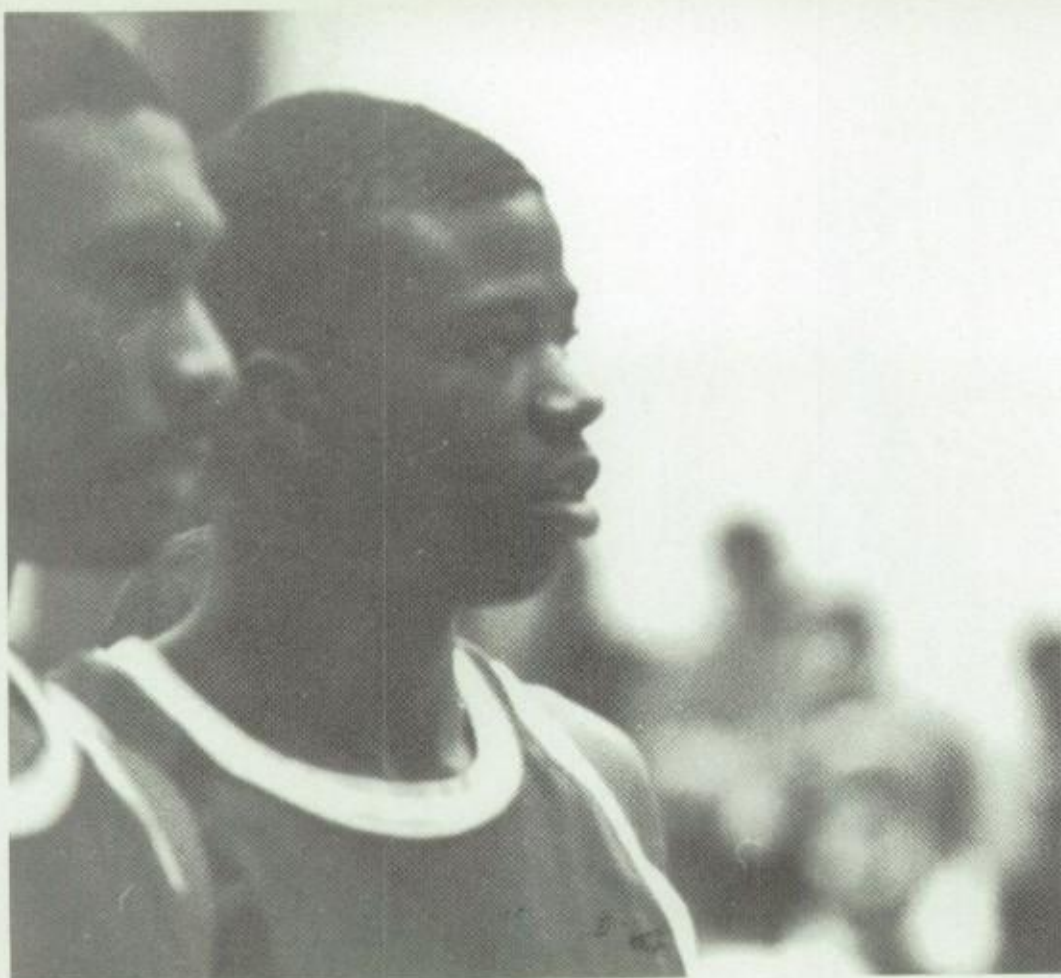

D i s t r i c t

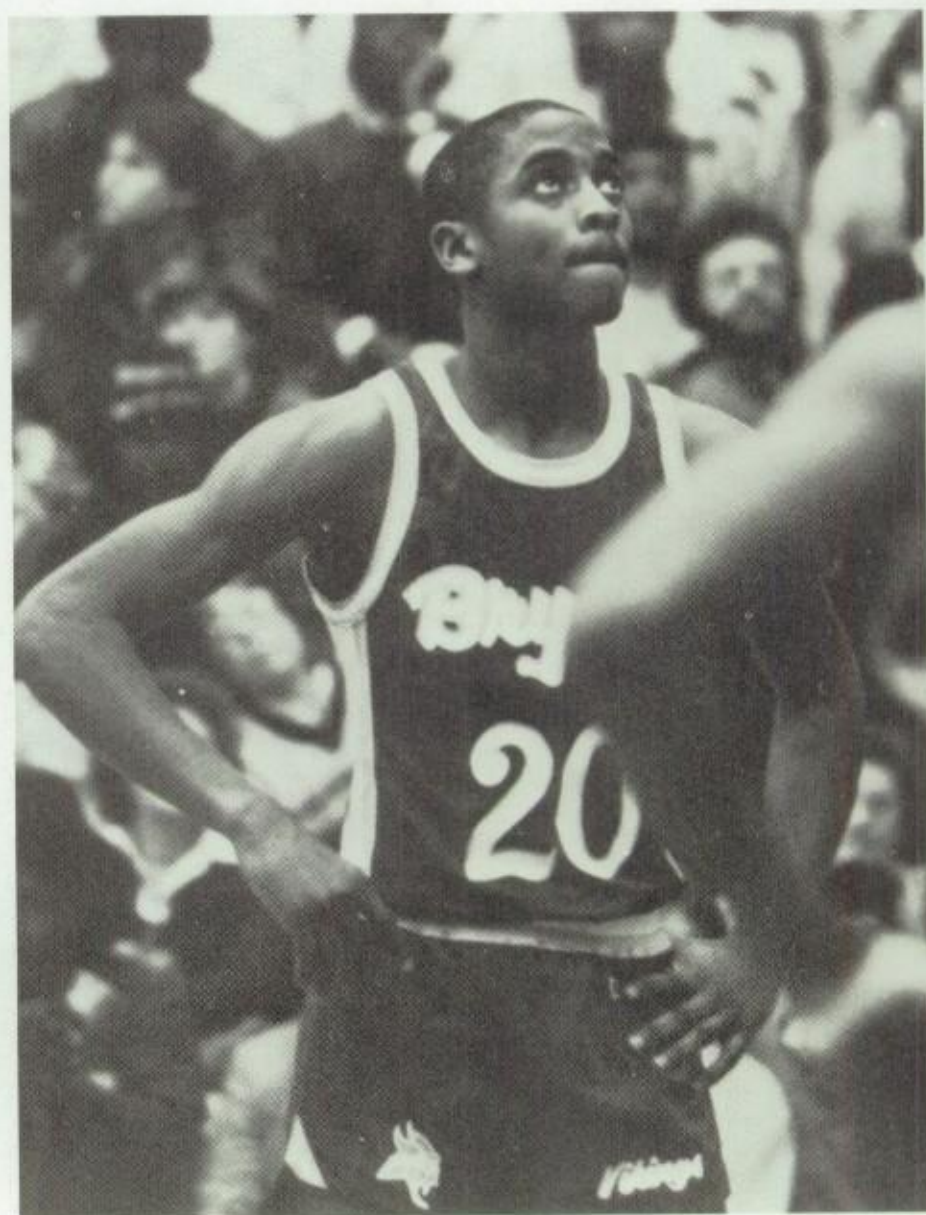

In January of 1985, the Viking Basketball team returned from the Christmas holidays and plunged into district play. They had a pre-district record of 15 wins and 8 losses. Throughout the district season, the Temple Wildcats and the Killeen Kangaroos were the only teams proving to be competition for the Vikes. In the last game of the regular season, the Vikings played in Temple for the District title. Temple scored 64 points against the Vikings' 58. This set the stage for a contest that would decide District 14-5A's runner-up. The Vikes then battled Killeen the following week and were victorious, while qualifying for the play-offs.

Playing basketball for Bryan High School under Coach Larry Brown meant working hard in practices and in games. Not only has it made me a better player, but it has made me become a better person and a winner.
 Ronnie "Monk" Morrison #24

Basketball is an exciting game for me. I enjoyed playing basketball for Bryan High School. I also enjoyed playing under a coach like Larry Brown. He taught me many things about the game. He's a winner. Winning a State Championship was the most exciting thing to happen to me.
 Gary "G.C." Caldwell #20

Playing basketball at Bryan High School meant a lot to me. Getting to play on a championship team is all a guy could ask for. Being able to play under the leadership of Coach Brown not only helped improve my skills, but has also given me a better view of what being a true winner is all about.
 Houston "Savage" Williams #32

*Coach Brown worked hard showing us how to win on and off the court. The team kept dreaming and believing we could win. This team was made of dedication and believing. I'll remember those two state championships while I attended B.H.S.
Derrick "The Enforcer" Wiggins #44*

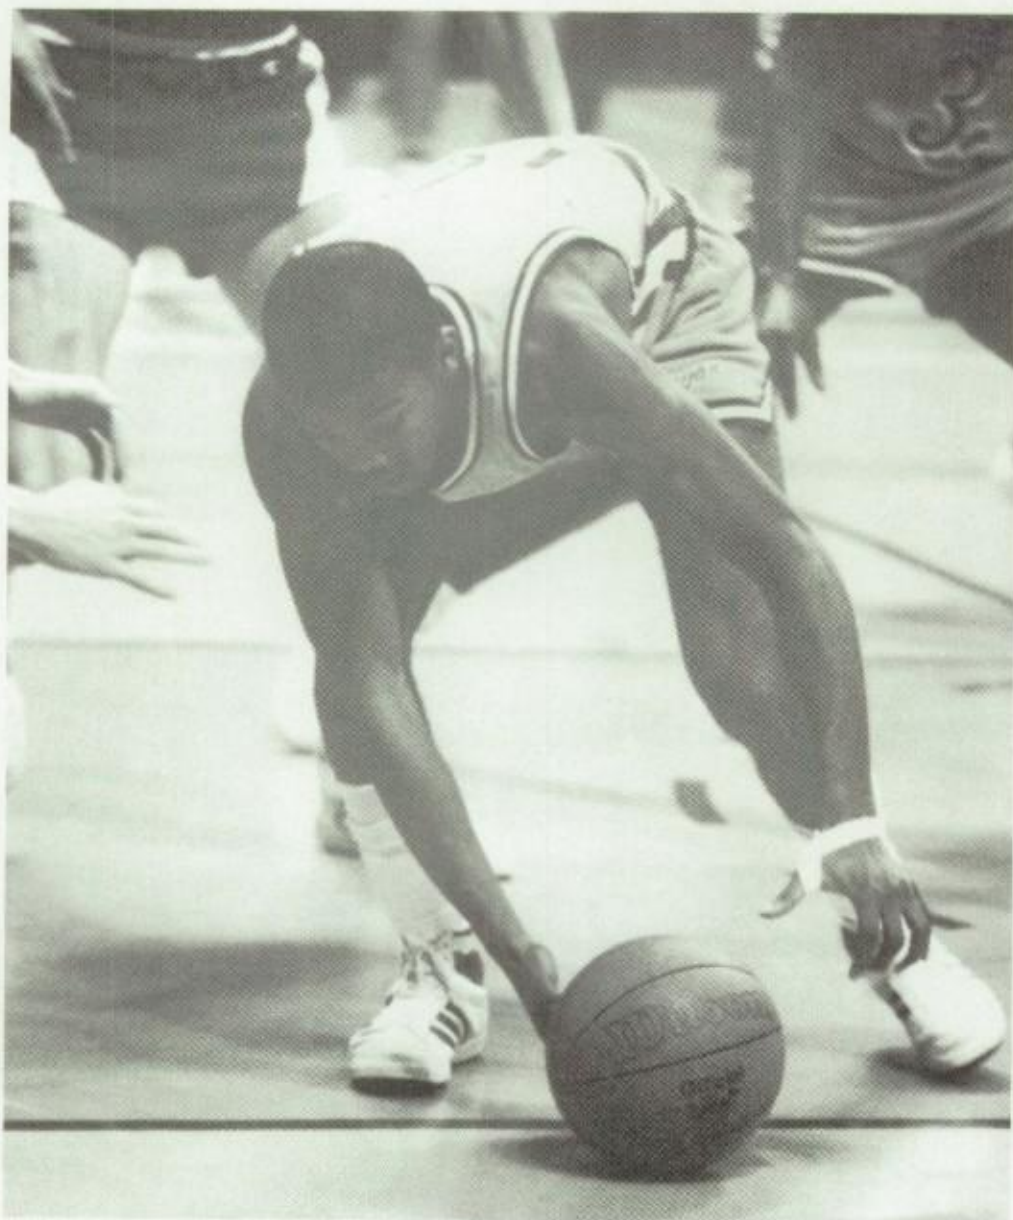

*After years of maturing, this one has been the most for the seniors. It's been a year of record setting and goal reaching, but we learned the most precious thing is to be winners in life.
John Goosby #40*

*I played because I enjoyed it and because girls like basketball players. In practice I felt like quitting, but when it came down to it, I really wanted to play. I learned that you can get satisfaction from something if you work hard at it.
Cedrick Hamilton #22*

Play-offs

Though the Vikings were not expected to earn their way into the play-offs, it was evident that they were determined enough to do it. Yet the critics still claimed it couldn't go much further. The Vikings were optimistic about the McCullough game because they had defeated them earlier in the year. They blasted the McCullough team and were qualified for regionals. The next team in line was considerably tougher to face: 5th ranked John-Tyler. The following day newspaper headlines read, "Vikings Do Again What They're Not Supposed To" because they had overcome the odds and beat John-Tyler. The following week the Vikings lost to the 5th ranked Kimball Knights, and their season ended.

The Vikings knew they didn't have the height advantage or the exceptional talent of other teams, but they had a respect for each other and their coach. He believed in them and they believed in him.

By

Marty Lopez

#30

Throughout the 84-85 season some wondered what triggered the never-say-die attitude of the Bryan Viking Basketball team. They also wondered what helped the Vikes prevail and win games that they considered impossible for us to win. We were thought of as being underdogs in many of our games. But we, the team of 85, never thought twice about the underdog remarks. We felt every time we stepped out on the court we had an excellent chance to finish the game victorious because we have something that lies within each one of us, and no one can take it away.

It's BLUE MAGIC, and during the season it was always alive. BLUE MAGIC consists of love, determination, togetherness, believing and working extremely hard to reach our potential. The BLUE MAGIC is always there, but it took a very special magician to make it work to our best advantage; that was Coach Brown. Whenever we were in need of magic, Coach Brown always reached down in his bag of tricks and brought out a little more BLUE MAGIC. Some people even named it after him and called it "Brown Magic." Whatever magic it was, it made us work hard to reach our goals we had set forth because upon reaching our goals, we experienced an extraordinary feeling of success. Although we never reached our ultimate goal of winning our third state championship, we will always be winners not only on the court but in the game of life, and we will always have our magic.

The sweat, pain and tears we have endured during the season we'll cherish forever along with that BLUE MAGIC.

I have lots of fun in band!
I meet neat people and get to know them well. There wasn't any extra pressure on me this year because of the legislature changes except during marching season. When I'm in the band, I feel like part of a big family. I also felt like a part of the football team as well. I really enjoy band!

After football season their job is not complete; they continue vigorous practice to prepare for competition and the "Shy-Anne Spring Show." The Good Sportsmanship League is the organization at Bryan High School that promotes good sportsmanship between our school and other schools and among the student body. The GSL advisor for the fall semester was Mrs. Candice May; the present advisor is Mrs. Cheryl Weaver. The group presented a gift to our opponents at each football game this year to show the bond of friendship between the two. They also sponsored the "player of the week" competition for outstanding players on the Junior Varsity and Varsity football teams weekly. A big part of the duties of a GSL member is being a secret pal to participants in many sports. They decorate lockers, bake cookies and give gifts to wish players good luck. The group sponsors punch parties, charts fan buses, and conducts other activities to encourage student involvement. The main goal of the Good Sportsmanship League is to promote school spirit. Officers for the 1984-85 school year are as follows: President — Mary Lee Maniord, Vice-President — Dee Ann Matura, Football Chairman — Mandy Tucker, Basketball Chairman — Karen McCann, and Spring Sports Chairmen — Melissa Petty and Jennifer Dailey.

WE DO IT BECAUSE WE LOVE IT!

The yearbook staff is composed of talented and creative young persons who carry on a Bryan High tradition with excellence. While compiling information about BHS students, organizations, and events, they are also learning skills such as photography, printing, lay-out design and techniques.

Our staff has learned to meet deadlines with a sense of humor and talent instead of anxiety and

"The Newcomers Club is a brand new organization developed for all the new arriving students at Bryan High.

Our Motto is, 'Let's be friends.' To explain it better, the Newcomers Club is trying to spread friendship throughout Bryan High School.

The club was formed to make B.H.S. a warmer and more inviting school. We all know how strange and scary it is to come to a new place, especially when it is as big a place as Bryan High. This club wishes to make this problem a little easier.

Each new student is escorted to their classes by a member of the Newcomers Club until the new student is oriented with the school. To give new students a sense of belonging and participation, they are automatically accepted as members of the club as soon as they arrive.

The Newcomers Club meets about twice a month, usually before school. They enjoy many social gatherings and always are encouraging membership. If you like clubs, this is the one to join."

The True Way of the Martial Arts

"Currently, the public has viewed the way of the Martial Arts as an oriental man with lightning hands and feet punching, kicking and screaming his way through a brigade of men unscathed. This is an incorrect idea. Martial Arts training helps to develop the mind, by adding confidence, the body, by increasing strength and stamina, and the spirit through discipline. The way of the Martial Arts is not an outside battle for control of others, but an inside battle for control of oneself."

"OK guys, this is the plan."

The Student Council participated in two campus beautification projects locally and statewide. A collection was made in the school and approximately $272 gathered. The money went toward the purchase of trees and shrubs which the council members planted. This effort won the Brazos Beautiful competition against A&M Consolidated and was awarded second place in a state competition.

And We Found Them . . .

After seeing an inspirational film entitled DreamMakers BHS nominated and elected its own. A DreamMaker is one who "... sets goals and achieves them, ... can always make others happy, ... is willing to face new challenges with an open mind." Seven students and three teachers were selected. "Knowledge is not a loose-leaf notebook of facts. Above all it is a responsibility for the integrity of what we are, primarily of what we are as ethical creatures. The personal commitment of a man to his skill, the intellectual commitment and the emotional equipment working together as one, has made the Ascent of Man."

Jacob Bronowski

Superintendent

Superintendent Dr. Guy Gorden

Superintendent of the Bryan Independent School District is a challenging position according to Dr. Guy Gorden, the current superintendent. Dr. Gorden has lived in Bryan for seven years. "I love the atmosphere here. That's why my family and I moved back after I got my Ph.D. at A&M in 1976," said Gorden. He and his wife, an accounting teacher at B.H.S., have two children. He has previously taught high school Biology and Physiology. In high school Dr. Gorden worked on the yearbook staff as a co-editor. He has attended Oklahoma State University, University of Tulsa, and TAMU. His outlook on the status quo of the school system is optimistic. "I believe the students' attitudes and grades are improving," commented Gorden. Dr. Gorden views the landmark educational legislation of House Bill 72 as productive and needed.

Principals

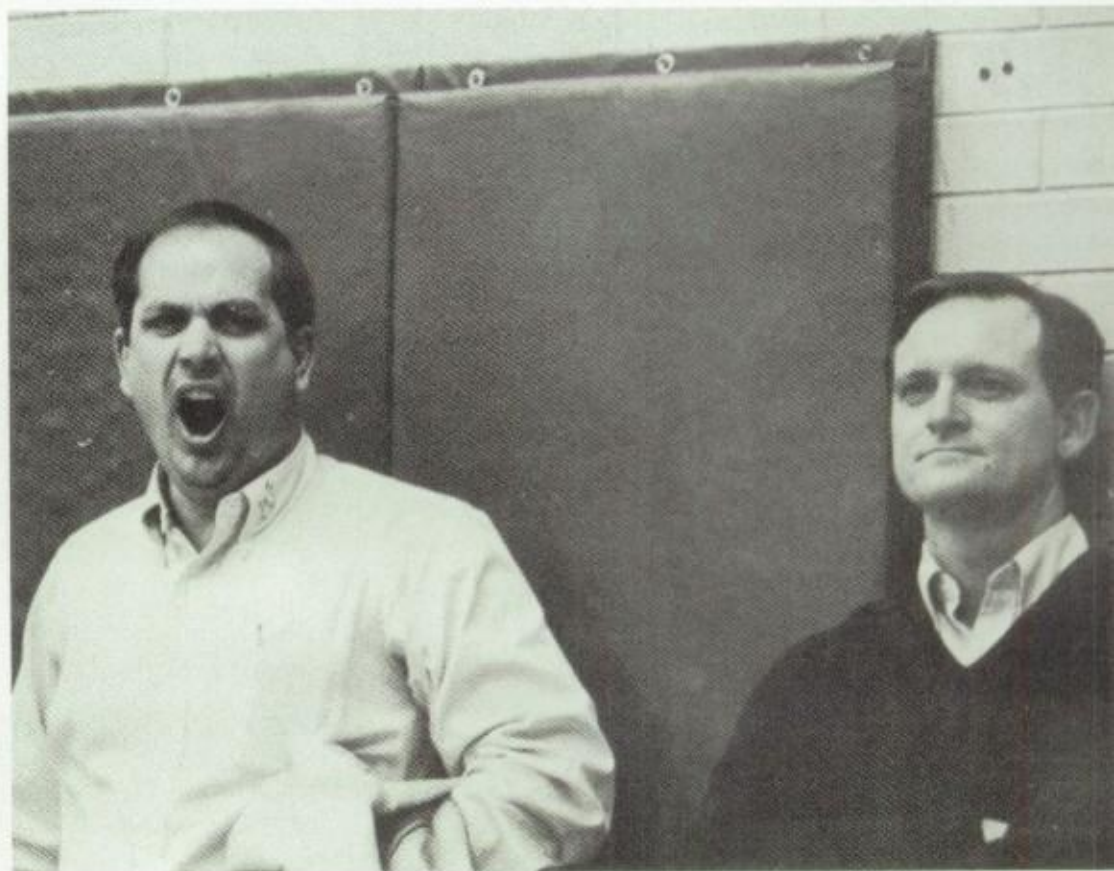

Jerry Kirby, Principal

Among the many changes Bryan High has seen this year has been a change in principals — Mr. Jerry Kirby. Stepping into a situation of confusion and uncertainty, Mr. Kirby has been able to bring new and innovative ideas to the student body and faculty. Mr. Kirby says his goal for the year has been to establish an atmosphere where everyone has a common interest — to make BHS the best in Texas. He hoped to see the whole student body contributing to some aspect of the high school. He is proud to say that students have changed from a spirit of “me” to the spirit of “we.” He has seen a feeling of pride and initiative develop in the student body as a whole.

This year has been difficult, though, due to the legislative rulings. Mr. Kirby says that House Bill 72 is the broadest change education has seen in 50 years. He is thankful that the students, teachers and parents’ support has made the transition smooth. When asked how he would like to be remembered, he simply said, “as someone with the most sincere desire to have the best educational institution.”

Mr. Moore and Mr. Kirby await the next contestant in the “Make Me Laugh Contest.”
